

CIVIL ENGINEERING | PROJECT MANAGER

Civil Group | Fishers, Indiana

07/24/2018

Overview:

Hamilton Designs is looking for a dynamic individual to be a Project Manager in join our Civil Group. A good candidate will be a motivated, entrepreneurial minded, hands on manager; to direct, market and win site development engineering work in the Midwest. This person will be flexible and able to work in a fast-paced environment.

Responsibilities:

This Project Manager will be responsible for managing a variety of projects, mentoring and developing staff, and seeking out business opportunities. This Project Manager will be expected to manage projects profitably, including effective delegation of appropriate tasks, mentoring staff and leading quality control. In this position, you will also be responsible for driving client satisfaction, participating in proposals and presentations, and providing technical experience.

Previous experience managing design of site layouts, grading and drainage design and permitting of commercial & residential site development projects, road design, utility design and hydrologic/hydraulic analysis is required.

Candidate should have the ability and desire to work between geographic markets throughout the US. Current markets include Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Missouri, North Carolina, and South Carolina.

In this position, you will have the opportunity to build a client base while working in our entrepreneurial and growing company, a motived person will have great opportunities for advancement

Requirements:

- Registered Engineer with six or more years diversified site development experience
- Client contacts and relationships with private developers, local municipalities and permitting agencies
- Ability to effectively communicate positively at all levels of the organization
- Ability to effectively lead a team and mentor other staff
- Demonstrated ability to manage projects profitably

Email Resume to contact@hamilton-designs.com